

By working together through digital means and as already announced by Prof. Geraldina Boni in her essay Una proposta di legge, frutto della collaborazione della scienza canonistica, sulla sede romana totalmente impedita e la rinuncia del papa (https://www.statoechiese.it/images/uploads/articoli\_pdf/Boni.M\_Una\_proposta.pdf?pdf=una-proposta-di-legge-frutto-della-collaborazione-della-scienza-canonistica), a group of Canon law scholars from different countries has prepared two different law proposals: the first one concerns the regulation of the Roman See when it is entirely impeded because of external circumstances or the Roman Pontiff's temporary or permanent inhabilitas; the second one regards the relevant issues pertaining to the legal status of the Bishop of Rome who resigned his office.

This virtual space is meant to be the place where what was developed is brought to the attention of the Canon law scholarship from all over the world: the purpose is to enhance and improve the law proposals through the suggestions received, in order to present them, in the end, for the consideration of the Church's legislator.
